

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT

Since 1979, UTSA's economic development programs have been building the economy, one business at a time. UTSA's Institute for Economic Development hosts centers and programs that facilitate economic, community and business development at the local, regional and national levels.

ECONOMIC DEVELOPMENT CENTERS

- » UTSA South-West Texas Border Small Business Development Center Network
- » UTSA SBDC Technology Commercialization Center
- » UTSA SBDC International Trade Center
- » Minority Business Development Agency (MBDA) Business Center San Antonio
- » Southwest Trade Adjustment Assistance Center
- » UTSA SBDC Center for Government Contracting
- » UTSA Procurement Technical Assistance Center
- » UTSA Small Business Development Center
- » Center for Community and Business Research
- » Small Business Development Center National Information Clearinghouse

41K
Businesses served

$2.5B
Direct economic impact generated

11K
Jobs created or retained

$243M
New financing generated

$39M
New tax revenue generated

$2.4B
New sales, contracts
and exports

Fiscal Year 2023 Data

1.4K

SPOTLIGHT | Assistance Success

Number of businesses started or experiencing significant growth after received advising, training and business research assistance from UTSA's Institute for Economic Development's support programs and centers.